Juno Beach Civic Association Announces New Leadership and Board Reorganization

Juno Beach, FL – The Juno Beach Civic Association (JBCA) is pleased to announce a reorganization and the election of a new Board of Directors, now led by Ms. Kay Brayden as President. This restructured team of community leaders is dedicated to advancing JBCA's mission: "to help enhance the Quality of Life in Juno Beach."

Joining Ms. Brayden in guiding the association are newly appointed officers and directors:

- Catherine Haselkorn, Vice President
- Jackie Stivala, Director
- Cathie Field Lloyd, Director
- Linda McClurg, Treasurer
- Lou Fernandez, Director
- Jim Gill, Director

Under this new leadership, the JBCA will continue its efforts to support community engagement, strengthen neighborhood ties, and represent the interests of Juno Beach residents. With renewed vision and expertise, the Board aims to expand initiatives that enrich the lives of residents and encourage participation in local projects and events.

President Kay Brayden shared her enthusiasm for the coming term, stating, "Our team is honored to serve the people of Juno Beach, and we're excited to bring fresh new ideas and dedicated leadership to enhance our community's quality of life."

Ms. Brayden also expressed her gratitude to Tom Murphy for his guidance and direction as Interim President during the JBCA's reorganization. "Tom's leadership has been instrumental in steering the association through a critical period and positioning us for future success," she noted.
